The spirit of the Lord says: "Just because my word has not come to pass yet, it does not mean, it will not fulfill. For your criticism of my word reached heaven and I decided to enlighten you of the present and the upcoming. You are witnessing the destruction of the Old Guard, the masons who call themselves the illuminated ones. I will turn them into rubble and their ashes will be scattered over the deserts of Mesopotamia where they rebelled and started their worldly wisdom by the help of the fallen one. These are the ones you sat behind closed doors with, devising plans, and making decisions on behalf of my church, but it will not be so." For the spirit the Lord says, "I have interfered and intervened for I have seen your hand shake and sent my angel to take hold of your location called Mother See of Cilicia. The wisdom of the sages and the philosophers of this world is foolishness in my eyes and there is no word that I release from heaven as a command that returns to me void without fulfillment. I had given you the month of Tishrie when I spoke my word to you 8 years ago, which is 8 days in my sight. Accordingly, hear now for I never indicated, which year of Tishrie will I visit you for your iniquities. what I have seen and what will take place in your home so called the headquarters of Cilicia. Since you have chosen Mammon over the one true Living God then I will hand you over to the tormentor of the soul before your body is separated from thy soul, which I have given you as a gift. Armenia will see revival of faith, but after your death, and indeed I have decided to unite the chairs, but not as you have decided with the leaders of this world who worship Satan. My word to my daughter was, "Lebanon shall be your sign before my word is fulfilled." Three things I will do as I have spoken from heaven.

I will cleanse my church, revive the faith over the Armenian Nation and unite the church under my direct source of leadership and none you will witness. Masons will have no place in my church and anyone who brings their seal and illuminating destructive commandments into my house I will destroy them with my rod of justice because my throne is the foundation of righteousness and pedophilia has no place in my kingdom. I will expose your secret rings of child trafficking and bring your plans into rubble. Every meeting you held with the leaders from the worshipers of darkness and every handshake you have participated in you are guilty of blood that I will inquire of you very soon.

Immorality has been a foundation in the House of Cilicia, which you call it a headquarter. But it will not be so for I have raised my Cyrus to cleanse the earth and close the satanic portals that you participated in opening. I sounded my Trumpet from heaven and Cyrus was declared a king. History repeats itself not because I tend to punish humans regularly, but rather humans tend to fall for the lust of their flesh opening up doors of temptation. Just as my son is being crucified over and over again due to your sins, so Satan brings the same game to humanity and plays with them over every generation, thus, making souls fall into the state of mortal sin. It is the same old guard and the same tempter, but different people in his trap carrying on his mission. Hear the Word O son of temptation the 100 years which Satan had acquired of my son is over and I am reclaiming my church as I have set Cyrus over my Army to lead this battle Light vs. Darkness. Don't say the Lord is tempting me for the Lord does not cause temptation, but only gives permission to the tempter to take hold of you because by sinning you are giving him the legal authority to make you a slave to him. Your slavery had begun the minute you swore your oath to his temple and how you became god in your own eyes thinking your reign will never end."

The spirit of the Lord says, "Time has come and it has come now to reclaim everything that belongs to me, the time I had granted unto the enemy has expired and so the life of many who served him in this age has expired and will expire such as yours as well. The end of the children of darkness who call themselves the illuminated ones has come, and I am separating my Sheep from the Goats, time of grace is upon my children who received the call of repentance, but woe to the wicked who set themselves above the righteous for I will avenge the earth for the blood of the martyrs. Those who gave testimony to the name of my Son and did not bow a knee to Baal. Just as in the days of Elijah there were 7000, which I had preserved for myself so in this day and age I have a set number of people whom I have reserved to myself who have not bowed a knee to Baal nor sold their soul to the devil for the wealth of this world. I will raise them up and bless them abundantly, I will protect them and guide them and my spirit will be upon them until I call them out of this world one by one. They will be fetched as a fresh flower with a heavenly aroma. Recall my word to Abraham as I had told him your descendants will not return to this land before four generations for the sins of the Amorites have not reached its full measure yet. Likewise, the cry of my people reached my ear and the earth completed its cycle of wickedness so is now, the time of justice. I had sent my angles to console my people indicating the time of my visitation to this world is near and indeed it has come now. The nations of this world have mourned long enough raising their voice to heaven seeking justice. There is a set day of justice to be executed upon this earth, which will be for all nations apart from the day of judgment at the time of death. Execution of justice upon this earth will take place by my righteous leaders of this world with the guidance of Cyrus. It will be a day of reckoning for all the sins of adultery, idolatry, murder, pedophilia slavery, theft and extortion. For they got drunk on the blood of the innocent." Therefore, hear the word of the Lord, "In one hour the doom of Babylon will be carried out and it will collapse without rising again for a long time until the son of lawlessness comes to power to fulfill the rest of my word, which I had sent from heaven." The manipulated Moed of Satan does not represent my Appointed days and feasts. As my cycle is secret and not revealed to the son of doom. I will destroy those altars, which you bowed down without looking up whom you are serving. You have chosen to adorn yourself with the gold of this world, but I have seen your nakedness and your poverty. Your eloquent speech does not impress me and your decisions offended me. Repentance was found to be far from your heart and no contrition of sins were revealed in your soul. In 3 moon cycles you will meet your fate for the Lord has spoken.
