

Change Coming to The Armenian Nation

9/14/2022 3:00 pm Lord's message

There is change coming to your nation, change of regions on the map. There were negotiations as to the lands that are being given now never belonged to the Armenians in the first place, according to the agreements. listen carefully Sossi, you saw in 2014 negotiations regarding the regions of Van, Mush, Gars. These are regions Aram asked for, but in return for other lands to be returned, however, it will not be so by his hands rather it will be my hand.

You as a nation lack power, technology and military, which is why I will take some and give other lands back to you, not all, some. Yet this will be after revelations and truth droppings, I will unite you as one and give you some lands back, mark it and remember it, it's been written and sealed.
